The taxes on the increased taxable value are captured to support the project.

The taxes on the original taxable value are disbursed as normal.