

Area Agency on Aging 1-B

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

“CONNECT is your guide to long-term care options for older adults and caregiving resources for families in Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair and Washtenaw counties.”

Connect includes useful articles on finding care, paying for care, long-distance caregiving and more. It also includes listings of specific resources for each of the counties we serve, including food assistance, transportation, respite services and more. Click here to download the guide.

Questions about the guide can be directed to Kathleen Yannik.

Ann Arbor Public Schools

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

Ann Arbor Public Schools has provided a community resources page with information on many kinds of community services.

Catholic Social Services/Ahead of the Curve

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

Catholic Social Services/Ahead of the Curve publishes both a printed and online Senior Resource Directory. Below are links and a description:

“Find the right Washtenaw County programs and services for yourself or an older adult you know.”

Ahead of the Curve by Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County that aims to make Washtenaw County a caregiver-friendly community.

Click here to view searchable Senior Resource Directory with over 500 local resources.

“Don't know what resources you need? Take our Resource Quiz to get connected with resources.”

Questions about this guide can be directed to Rachael Dawson.

Community Action Network

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

Community Action Network provides a large resource guide both online and as a google doc for low-income families. This guide has a huge variety of resources.

Engage@Emu

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

Eastern Michigan University has provided a resource guide for residents of Washtenaw and Wayne county. This guide is in a google sheet document and sorted by category on the tabs on the bottom of the document.

Food Gatherers

#food

Food Gatherers provides a regularly updated list of food banks and places to get hot meals. Click here to see their food bank map. Providers may also contact cfp@foodgathers.org with the subject line "Need Food" or contact Erin Freeman at 734-761-2796 ext. 209 with questions.

Friends In Deed

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

Friends In Deed has provided a general resource guide to social services in the community. This guide has a wide range of resources.

It can be downloaded and printed for residents.

Hope Health Clinic

#food #health&wellness

Overview of all services provided at the clinic including healthcare, vision, dental, foodbank, hot meal, and assistance for families with infants.

Click here for the guide to Hope's services.

House by the Side of the Road

#Misc

Gemaya Griffin

House by the side of the road provides clothing and small household items free of charge for people in need. Shopping is currently by appointment. Gemaya can be reached for questions about services at gemaya_de_ruijter@hotmail.com

<https://www.housebythesideoftheroad.org/home.html>

Huron Valley Humane Society

#misc

Huron valley humane society provides a service guide for their food bank and emergency shelter program. They also have provided a guide to other pet food banks in Michigan.

Jewish Family Services

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

“JFS is one of the organizations and entities in Washtenaw County collaborating on a system to efficiently and equitably connect care across agencies and sectors. Best practices for doing so encompass three elements of primary infrastructure that comprise a holistic ecosystem of health and social care: Resource Data Exchange, Client Data Exchange, and Community Data Governance.”

Information on Jewish Family Services for clients can be found on their website.

SOS

#food #utilities

Tracey Anderson or Emily Hastie

SOS has provided a list of organizations that provide food assistance in the area by day of the week in a calendar form that is easy to read for clients. For questions about SOS services providers can contact a resource specialist:

Tracey Anderson
traceya@soscs.org
734-484-9945

Emily Hastie
emilyh@soscs.org
734-484-9945

Washtenaw Health Initiative (WHI)

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

A directory of directories that the WHI put together for the community during the Covid-19 Pandemic

Click here for the directory and here for resources for health, economic, and social impacts of Covid-19.

WHI has also provided an article about updating your agency or organization's information in the 2-1-1 database.

Questions about these guides can be directed to Erin Spanier.

espanier@umich.edu

734-998-8514

University of Michigan

#food #health&wellness #housing #utilities #misc

A directory of community resources aimed at low income University of Michigan Students. This guide would also be useful for residents in the Ann Arbor Area.

 Being Not-Rich at UM

