Washtenaw County Parks is on eBird!

What is eBird?

It is an online checklist that stores and provides data on bird abundance and distribution across the globe. With an eBird account, free to everyone, you can share observations with Washtenaw County Parks to help us learn about the birds on this property.

How to Share with us!

To share your observations, once your checklist has been submitted, go to “Manage My Checklist,” click on Share, add Washtenaw County Parks to your contact list, then hit “Share Checklist.”
