

When you see someone wearing a mask, remember:

- People may be immunocompromised
- People may have a high-risk loved one
- People may have unvaccinated children
- People may be unvaccinated
- People may have been exposed
- People may prefer to wear a mask

Please be kind and respectful.

Washtenaw County
Health Department

Graphic adapted from the Chicago Department of Public Health