QUITCLAIM DEEDS

- Pursuant to the GPTA, before issuing a deed to a person purchasing property, the Treasurer requires the person to execute and submit to the Treasurer an affidavit under penalty of perjury. If the person purchasing the property fails to execute and submit the affidavit required by the GPTA — by the date payment for the property is required — the Treasurer may be obligated to cancel the sale. An affidavit will indicate that the purchaser of the property meets all of the following conditions:

- Pursuant to the GPTA, any person purchasing property, who held an interest in that same property at the time of the Foreclosure Order, must pay the minimum bid amount before receiving a deed to the property, or the Treasurer will cancel the sale of the property.
- Quitclaim deeds will be issued upon receipt of payment and receipt of the deed information form. The quitclaim deed will convey only such title as vested in the Treasurer under the tax foreclosure process under state law.
- A Property Transfer Affidavit will also be mailed to the purchaser with the recorded deed. This affidavit must be completed by the purchaser and filed with the local assessor where the property is located.

TITLE INSURANCE

- Title insurance companies may or may not issue title insurance on properties sold.
- The Treasurer makes no representations regarding the availability of title insurance policies for any of the properties. Unavailability of title insurance is not grounds for reconveyance to the Treasurer.
- After purchase, a purchaser may incur legal costs for a quiet title action, to assert rights of possession, or to satisfy the requirements of a title company in order to obtain title insurance. The Treasurer is not responsible for such costs.
- After purchase, a purchaser may want to obtain copies of documents relating to the foreclosure order entered by the Court. To the extent possible, such documents should be obtained from the Court's file relating to the foreclosure order and judgment. To the extent that such documents are unable to be obtained from the Court and the purchaser wishes to obtain foreclosure documents from the Treasurer, copies of documents responsive to a reasonable request will be subject to a fee of $75.00 per parcel.

PROPERTY TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS

- As noted above, purchasers will be responsible for all property taxes for 2022, which include, but are not limited to, state education taxes, summer, winter, and/or village taxes billed in 2022, including interest and fees that may have been accrued, and/or special assessments due.
- Purchasers must contact the city, village, or township treasurer for amounts due.
- Summer 2022 property taxes will be included in the initial minimum bid. If property is purchased for at least the initial minimum bid, the Treasurer will send payment of the 2022 summer taxes to the local Treasurer after receiving payment of the winning bid amount.

to pay the 2022 taxes within the specified time frame will result in the forfeiture of up to $2,000 of the purchase amount.

- The purchaser of a property must contact the local city, village, or township assessor in which the property is located to ensure a correct mailing address for future tax bills.
- Deferred assessments reported to the Treasurer before the Treasurer acquired title to tax-reverted properties are included in the minimum bid amounts.

ENVIRONMENTAL DISCLOSURES

A person who acquires property that is contaminated (a "facility" pursuant to Section 20101(1)(I) of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act (NREPA), 1994, P.A. 451, as amended) as a result of release(s) of a hazardous substance(s) may become liable for all costs of cleaning up the property and any other properties impacted by the release(s). Liability may be imposed upon the person acquiring the property even in the absence of any personal responsibility for, or knowledge of, the release. Protection from such liability may be obtained by conducting a Baseline Environmental Assessment (BEA) as provided for under Section 20126(1)(c) of NREPA. However, the BEA must be conducted prior to or within 45 days of the earliest date of purchase or occupancy of the property. Persons who acquire contaminated property may also have "due care" obligations under Section 20107a of NREPA even if they conduct a BEA and are not liable for the contamination.

Pursuant to Part 201 of the NREPA, the person(s) responsible for an activity causing a release at the property is obligated to pursue response activities at the property. Consequently, the non-labile purchaser may be required to provide access to a liable party to conduct response activities at the property in the future.

Section 20116 of the NREPA requires that a person who has knowledge that their property is contaminated provide a written notice to the purchaser or other person to whom the property is transferred which discloses the general nature and extent of the release. Additional disclosure obligations may also apply at the time the property, or an interest in the property, is transferred.

Accordingly, the Treasurer recommends that a person who is interested in acquiring property foreclosed for delinquent taxes contact an attorney or an environmental consultant for advice prior to the acquisition of any property foreclosed for delinquent taxes that may be contaminated.
